

Students and other interested parties are invited to attend a panel discussion on:

‘Working as a UN expert’

The Faculty of Law is currently in the unique position where three of its professors serve as expert members of United Nations bodies involved in the development of international law. They will discuss their work and how the appointment procedure works.

This should be of special interest to students who consider a career with an international dimension.

Panelists:

Ann Skelton

Professor, Department of Private Law
Member of the UN Committee on the Rights of the Child

Christof Heyns

Professor, Institute for International and Comparative Law
Member of the UN Human Rights Committee

Dire Tladi

Professor, Department of Public Law
Member of the UN International Law Commission

Moderator:

Annelize Nienaber

Professor and Head, Department of Public Law

Thursday 12 October 12h00 – 13h00

Under the umbrella at the Institute for International and Comparative Law in Africa A light lunch will be served

RSVP pumeza.matwa@up.ac.za

For a Pretoria News article on the topic, see <https://www.iol.co.za/pretoria-news/tuks-legal-eagle-trio-fly-high-on-key-un-bodies-10814393>