

Invitation

Lunch-time discussion
by Prof Dire Tladi on

'South Africa and Jordan's Non-Cooperation Case: The Final Act?'

University of Pretoria, South Africa
3 September 2018

www.icla.up.ac.za

You are cordially invited to a Lunch-time discussion by

Prof Dire Tladi on
'South Africa and Jordan's Non-Cooperation Case: The Final Act?'

On 10 -14 September, Prof Dire Tladi from the Department of Public Law and the Institute for International and Comparative Law in Africa, will appear as counsel on behalf of the African Union in the International Criminal Court in The Hague, in a hearing concerning the question whether South Africa and Jordan were guilty of non-cooperation with the Court. Both States did not arrest the Sudanese President Omar al-Bashir when he attended heads of State summits in their countries. Prof Tladi will provide an introduction to the case and field questions.

Event information

Date: Monday 3 September 2018

Time: 12:30 – 13:30

Venue: The Institute for International and Comparative Law in Africa (under the umbrella, so there is limited space)

RSVP: To RSVP please send an email to Pumeza Matwa
pumeza.matwa@up.ac.za

UNIVERSITEIT VAN PRETORIA
UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA
YUNIBESITHI YA PRETORIA