

Annual Human Rights and Policing Lecture

Professor Christof Heyns

When: Monday, 30 September 2019, 14h00 - 16h00 (arrival and registration from 13h00)

Where: Conference Room 2, Future Africa, University of Pretoria

The South African Human Rights Commission and the South African Police Service, in collaboration with the Centre for Human Rights at the University of Pretoria, cordially invite you to the first annual Human Rights and Policing Lecture entitled "Our Heritage: Dignity in Democracy".

The inaugural lecture will be delivered by Professor Christof Heyns, and will focus on the right of peaceful assembly in democracy. Prof. Heyns is an internationally renowned human rights expert and a member of the United Nations Human Rights Committee and Professor of Human Rights Law at the University of Pretoria.

RSVP by no later than Thursday, 26 September to Sibongiseni Tula (stula@sahrc.org.za), copying Thandiwe Matthews (tmatthews@sahrc.org.za) and Kwanele Pakati (kpakati@sahrc.org.za).

Light lunch will be served.