cordially invite you to a side-event on

Extra-judicial killings in Colombia

Thursday, June 21

2 to 4 pm

Palais des Nations

Room XXVI

The report by the Special Rapporteur on extrajudicial executions highlights a continued practice of extrajudicial killings in Colombia, and persistent impunity and lack of accountability for those involved, especially members of the armed forces accused of these human rights violations.

The continuous attempts by the Colombian government to prevent genuine accountability for these crimes indicate a clear need for the involvement of international justice mechanisms. The report "Colombia: The war is measured in litres of blood", which will be publicly launched at this side event, was submitted to the ICC prosecutor's office in May 2012 by FIDH and CCEEU, along with a request for the ICC to fully investigate those most responsible for the practice of "falsos positivos" in Colombia.

Panel:

- Mr. Christof Heyns, UN Special Rapporteur on extra-judicial, summary or arbitrary executions
- Ms Liliana Uribe, lawyer and co-founder of Corporación Jurídica Libertad and of CCEEU
- Ms Ana María Rodríguez, Representative to the UN, CCJ
- Ms Jimena Reyes, head of Americas bureau, FIDH

Debates will be moderated by Mr. Vincent Vallies, Oidhaco.
